From the Desk of Father Jonathan

During my nine years in Rome, my absolute favorite day of the year was Corpus Christi. On this day I would make my way over the Tiber River to the great Archbasilica of St. John Lateran where the Holy Father would celebrate the solemn mass. You may remember that St. John Lateran is actually the official papal cathedral, since, up until the year 1309 this was the pope's residence and cathedra, before it was moved temporarily to Avignon, and eventually to St. Peter's Basilica. Each year, after the mass of Corpus Christi the pope would go in procession with the Blessed Sacrament down a long and wide beautiful road that leads to another basilica named St. Mary Major. There, in the open air, in front of the basilica dedicated to Our Lady, the Holy Father would offer benediction to the people gathered in the plaza. Compared to the massive gatherings in St. Peter's Square, the Corpus Christi mass and procession were small and intimate. Anyone could get within feet of the Holy Father as he worshiped Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist. Amazing!

This weekend, in Mount Carmel, we will begin again the tradition of the Corpus Christi procession through the neighborhood, beginning at 5:00pm. The children who will receive their First Holy Communion this weekend will lead our procession in their First Communion dresses and suits. It too will be a small and intimate gathering. And there present among us will be the same Jesus Christ in the sacrament of the Most Holy Eucharist! I hope all of you will join us for at least part of the procession.

God Bless,
 Father Jonathan

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

Sunday Gospel: Luke 9, 11-17

At every Mass we remember Jesus' last Passover meal with his friends. We see only the bread and wine, but it is the Lord himself, broken and poured out for us, whom we receive. This amazing love is the opposite of greed ("I'm going to grab it all for myself") and its relative, stinginess ("I'll give only what I have to, and no more"). Both arise from a fear that we may lose what we own or not have enough. Prophets, saints, and Jesus himself say fear comes from lack of trust in God. Survivors of natural disasters know that possessions can disappear in a heartbeat. Such people show resilience, courage, and a will to rebuild their lives.

We, who are loved by God the Father, fed by God the Son, and strengthened by God the Holy Spirit, have all we need. If we open our hearts to these gifts and truly believe, our lives are transformed.

Confirmation next Sunday

Bishop Jenik will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation next Sunday at the 1:30pm Mass. This week, please pray for our candidates and their families.

RIFLESSIONE SULLA PAROLA DI DIO

Vangelo della Domenica: Luca 9, 11-17

Onoriamo e adoriamo oggi il "Corpo del Signore", spezzato e donato per la salvezza di tutti gli uomini, fatto cibo per sostenere la nostra "vita nello Spirito". Gesù ha moltiplicato i pani e i pesci per nutrire la folla che lo seguiva: il cibo fisico agisce in me anche quando non ci penso, anche quando dormo si trasforma in carne, sangue, energie vitali. Il cibo spirituale è diverso: è efficace se io collaboro con Cristo, che vuole trasformare la mia vita nella sua. L'Eucaristia è la festa della fede, stimola e rafforza la fede. I nostri rapporti con Dio sono avvolti nel mistero: ci vuole un gran coraggio e una grande fede per dire: "Qui c'è il Signore!". Se guardo a me stesso, mi trovo sempre piccolo, imperfetto, peccatore, pieno di limiti. Eppure Dio mi ama, come ama tutti gli uomini, fino a farsi nostro cibo e bevanda per comunicarci la sua vita divina, farci vivere la sua vita di amore. L'Eucaristia non è credibile se rimane un rito, il ricordo di un fatto successo duemila anni fa. È invece una "scuola di vita", una proposta di amore che coinvolge tutta la mia vita: deve rendermi disponibile ad amare il prossimo, fino a dare la mia vita per gli altri. Secondo l'esempio che Gesù ci ha lasciato.

Corpus Christi Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ,
 you gave us the Eucharist
 as the memorial of your suffering and death.
 May our worship of this sacrament of your body and blood help us to experience
 the salvation you won for us and the peace of the kingdom
 where you live with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

REFLEXIONEMOS LA PALABRA DE DIOS
Evangelio del Domingo: Lucas 9, 11-17

En cada Misa recordamos la última cena de Jesús con sus amigos. Aunque sólo vemos pan y vino, recibimos al mismo Señor que se entrega y derrama su sangre por nosotros. Este amor asombroso es lo opuesto a la avaricia (“Voy a quedarme con todo”) o a su prima hermana, la mezquindad (“Doy lo mínimo posible y ni un céntimo más”). Tanto una como la otra, brotan del miedo a perder lo que tenemos o a no tener suficiente. Profetas, profetisas, santos y santas, pero sobre todo el mismo Jesús, dicen que el miedo proviene de una falta de confianza en Dios. Los supervivientes de desastres naturales saben que las posesiones pueden desaparecer en un santiamén. Tales personas demuestran gran capacidad, valentía y fuerza de voluntad para rehacer su vida.

Nosotros tenemos todo lo que necesitamos en el amor de Dios Padre, el alimento eucarístico de Dios Hijo y la fortaleza de Dios Espíritu Santo. Si abrimos el corazón para recibir estos dones y verdaderamente creemos, nuestra vida será transformada.
