From the Desk of Father Jonathan

The Bronx is a rather noisy place on the 4th of July! The official fireworks are accompanied by equally loud private celebrations on patios, streets, and rooftops. Thankfully, this year was a mostly safe celebration.

Let's remember for a moment what all the celebration is about.

In 1776 a group of wise and brave men promulgated a declaration that rejected oppressive government and declared the United States of America to be independent. I love to read and re-read the Declaration of Independence as a reminder of clear thinking and the nature of principled governance. I thought I would share with you a few of the paragraphs that I find most meaningful.

With our political season heating up, and trust in politicians at an all-time low, I find it healthy to look back at the seriousness with which our founding fathers took their responsibility to lead our nation.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness."

God bless,
 Father Jonathan

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORDSunday Gospel: Luke 10, 25-37

Today's Gospel should trouble us more than it does. An expert in religious law wants Jesus to define "neighbor." In response, Jesus tells a disturbing story. A traveler is attacked and left for dead. A priest and Levite come upon him and walk around his body, afraid of impurity from the bloody "corpse." Along comes a Samaritan. Jews and Samaritans despised and avoided each other. The Samaritan sees that the beaten man is alive, cleans his wounds, and hauls him to the nearest inn, paying money to ensure his care. The priest, the Levite, and the Samaritan all saw the beaten man, but where the priest and the Levite saw a problem, the Samaritan saw a person. How quickly do we offer help to someone who might be trouble? Do we say silently, "If I give money they'll only spend it on alcohol or drugs," or "These people are always wanting handouts"? Jesus insists that "these people" are the neighbors we must love like ourselves. Let's get started.

RIFLESSIONE SULLA PAROLA DI DIOVangelo della Domenica: Luca 10, 25-37

Uomini imperfetti e turbati dal peccato, da una parte, non siamo certi di ciò che è bene e giusto e, dall'altra, ci capita spesso di non essere pronti a fare il bene. È il motivo per cui Dio ci ha dato i comandamenti: essi ci indicano ciò che è giusto e fanno sentire a ognuno ciò che deve fare. È per questo che gli Ebrei dell'antica Alleanza avevano stabilito un sistema di più di cinquecento comandamenti e divieti, che doveva permettere loro di compiere in tutto la volontà di Dio, perché non avevano più una visione chiara di che cosa fosse assolutamente essenziale agli occhi di Dio e si perdevano nei dettagli. Per i dottori della legge, discutere di gerarchie e di comandamenti era spesso ben più importante delle istituzioni destinate a compiere veramente la volontà di Dio. È ciò che dimostra l'esempio del dottore della legge che cerca di rendere Gesù ridicolo: ponendogli una domanda in apparenza sincera, egli vuole provare che è un teologo dilettante. Ma Gesù non sta al gioco. Costringe il dottore della legge a dare da sé la risposta giusta e gli mostra allora qual è il prossimo che ciascuno deve amare come se stesso: è quello che si trova in miseria ed è bisognoso del nostro aiuto. Si risparmia così ogni discussione saccente attorno al problema di sapere se qualcuno che non è ebreo, oppure è un ebreo peccatore, ha il diritto di aspettarsi il nostro aiuto.

Egli va anche più lontano, mostrando che un Samaritano da disprezzare (agli occhi dei dottori della legge) è capace di fare del bene in modo naturale seguendo la voce del suo cuore, mentre due pii Ebrei si disinteressano in modo disdicevole. Non dimentichiamo che Gesù sottolinea ben due volte al dottore della legge: "Agisci seguendo il comandamento principale e meriterai la vita eterna"!

Prayer to Our Lady of Mount Carmel

O most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me this my necessity. O Star of the Sea, help me and show me herein you are my Mother.

O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart, to assist me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. O, show me herein you are my Mother.
O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee. (3x)
Sweet Mother, I place this cause in your hands. (3x)

REFLEXIONEMOS LA PALABRA DE DIOS
Evangelio del Domingo: Lucas 10, 25-37

El evangelio de hoy debería inquietarnos más. Un experto en leyes religiosas quiere que Jesús le defina quién es el “prójimo”. Jesús le da la respuesta con una historia perturbadora. Un caminante es atacado y dejado por muerto. Un sacerdote y un levita le pasan por el lado por miedo a la impureza de un “cadáver” ensangrentado. Ahora viene un samaritano. Los judíos y samaritanos se despreciaban y evitaban encontrarse. El samaritano ve que el hombre golpeado está vivo, limpia sus heridas, lo lleva al hostel más cercano y paga para garantizar su cuidado. Tanto el sacerdote como el levita y el samaritano vieron al hombre golpeado, pero donde el sacerdote y el levita vieron un problema, el samaritano vio a una persona. ¿Cómo reaccionamos para ayudar a alguien que lo necesita? ¿Acaso decimos para nuestro interior: “Si le doy dinero lo gastará en alcohol o en drogas” o “Esa gente siempre espera que se lo den todo”?

Jesús insiste en que “esa gente” es el prójimo a quien debemos amar como a nosotros mismos. Manos a la obra.
