From the Desk of Father Jonathan

If I'm not mistaken, this is one of the first full weekends that I am outside the parish since moving here to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. I am away on vacation with family and friends in the great country of Ireland! Although my parents and even grandparents were born here in the United States, I have Irish blood on both sides of my family. In fact, I have several relatives who still live on the Isle whom I hope to see during our short stay.

There is something very spiritual about going back to our ethnic homeland. The Gospels go to great length to show the lineage of Jesus...that he was a man born of flesh and blood and belonging to a particular Davidic lineage. Likewise, you and I are who we are, to a great extent, based on people who have gone before us and contributed to our DNA and shaped our personalities. When I am in Ireland, I am sure I will see people who look like, sound like, and act much like my grandparents...and like me!

We also have the experience, however, that although we are influenced by our origins, we are not determined by them. For example...I much prefer Italian and Mexican food to Irish fair! But more significantly, I know too that I can't point to anything in my background as an excuse for not doing God's will in my life. No matter what my heritage, or the influences in my life...I have to stand alone before God and give account for what he has given me and what he asks of me.

I hope to come back from vacation as a better man...more relaxed, more centered on my mission, and kinder to all of you!

See you next weekend!

Father Jonathan

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORDSunday Gospel: Luke 14, 25-33

Why does Jesus say we must hate parents, spouses, children to be his disciples? Scholars believe that Jesus was deliberately exaggerating to emphasize the point that human beings often cling to relationships and possessions, which come to occupy the place in their heart where God is meant to be, making true discipleship almost impossible. Think of these examples: the woman totally focused on her children, ignoring her husband; the man who spends evenings and weekends drinking; the hoarder compensating for loss or lack of relationships. Such displacements, if hardened into habit, can keep people from a life with God.

Attending Mass regularly, frequent prayer, and keeping the commandments are excellent habits but do not bring us closer to God unless our hearts change to give God first place. This is true conversion—sometimes a dramatic process but more often a deliberate day-to-day effort to reorder how we live. Jesus first, others next, yourself last spells J-O-Y.

Living Stewardship Now

Create a quiet place in your home with a crucifix, statues or pictures of Mary and the saints, and pictures of people special to you. Pray there daily.

RIFLESSIONE SULLA PAROLA DI DIOVangelo della Domenica: Luca 14, 25-33

Voler essere discepoli del Cristo significa avere scelto e deciso di seguirlo, significa avere scelto Cristo come unico punto di riferimento della e nella nostra vita. Lo seguiamo perché lo amiamo e perché abbiamo fondato su di lui, e solo su di lui, il nostro progetto di vita.

Vivremo, nonostante tutto, infedeltà ed errori quotidiani, ma non saranno questi a troncane la nostra sequela se sapremo accettarli e viverli come limite e quindi come parte della croce che ogni giorno ci è chiesto di portare. Una croce fatta di grandi e piccole sofferenze e miserie, ma è proprio l'adesione alla "nostra" croce la via per divenire e rimanere suoi discepoli.

La Chiesa, oggi e sempre, è costruita da chi ha il coraggio di affidarsi soltanto a Dio e seguire Gesù con totale abbandono e senza nessun compromesso.

REFLEXIONEMOS LA PALABRA DE DIOS
Evangelio del Domingo: Lucas 14, 25-33

¿Por qué dice Jesús que debemos preferirlo a él por encima de madre, padre, cónyuge e hijos para poder ser sus discípulos? Jesús sabe que, como seres humanos, a menudo nos aferramos a relaciones y posesiones, y quiere advertirnos que será casi imposible ser sus discípulos si esas cosas llegan a ocupar el lugar que debería tener Dios en nuestro corazón. Piensa en estos ejemplos: la mujer que pone toda su atención en sus hijos e ignora al esposo; el hombre que se pasa todas las tardes y fines de semana bebiendo; la persona que lo acapara todo como para compensar la pérdida o carencia de relaciones. Tales desplazamientos, si se llegan a convertir en hábitos, pueden alejar a las personas de Dios.

Ir a Misa regularmente, orar con frecuencia y guardar los mandamientos son hábitos excelentes; pero no nos acercan a Dios, a no ser que Dios pase a ocupar de nuevo el primer lugar en nuestro corazón. Ésa es la verdadera conversión, que muchas veces podría realizarse drásticamente, pero por lo regular suele darse en el esfuerzo diario de reorganizar nuestra vida.

Viviendo la Palabra de Dios

Haz un espacio en tu casa y pon un crucifijo, una estatua o cuadro de la Virgen María y de algunos santos. Añade además fotos de personas que son especiales para ti. Reza en ese lugar diariamente.
