LAST WEEKEND'S ATTENDANCE - 10/23/2016

Adults:706 Children:214 / Total:920

From the Desk of Father Jonathan

This week I have been especially aware of and grateful for the hard work of so many of our parishioners, not only collaborating with what the priests and sisters are doing, but TAKING THE LEAD! I think of the Dinner Dance Committee, especially Mike Mongiovi, Celeste Calabro, and Elizabeth Mannini. They put countless hours into preparing what was a very successful event. Not only did we raise much needed funds for the parish, but most importantly they created an evening of family unity with nearly 300 attendees.

I think also of the many members of the Hispanic Ministry Team--whose names are too many to mention here--who have been organizing this Sunday's Family Fair / Kermesse. They have raised the bar of professionalism and creativity. Not only will we have great food, but also entertainment for both children and adults.

I think of our family and couples ministry, the ushers, high school youth group, the door-to-door street mission, and so many other areas where the LAITY are leading us. Thank you. Keep going! Don't wait for me or anyone else. The parish staff, including myself, will be here to give direction and approvals, but the work of evangelization and parish building is the responsibility of every baptized Catholic. Do you have an idea of how we can serve you or others better? Propose it and, when approved, do it. We will give you as much support as possible.

God bless,
Father Jonathan

P.S. We will open our mass book on Wednesday, November 9th. This year national, secular holidays like Memorial Day, Thanksgiving, etc. we will only have one daily mass, at 8:30am. This takes into account the fact we now only have two full-time priests on staff (instead of three) and usually at least one of us is away with family. Thank you for understanding.

+REST IN PEACE +

Please pray for the deceased members of our parish, Pietro Ruggiero & our fallen military.

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORDSunday Gospel: Luke 19, 1-10

I dreamt I was in heaven and an angel was my guide. We visited two huge rooms: in Receiving crowds of angels were sorting prayers and petitions, while in Shipping they were packaging and sending graces and blessings. Then we stopped in a small room, where one angel sat idling. "This is Acknowledgments," my guide said. "Why is nothing going on here?" I asked. My guide sighed. "After people receive their blessings, very few acknowledge them. Yet if you have food, clothing, and a roof overhead, you are richer than 75 percent of the world. If you have money in the bank you are among 8 percent of the world's wealthy. If you have never experienced war, imprisonment, torture or starvation you are unlike seven hundred million people in the world.

If you can express your beliefs without persecution you are freer than three billion people in the world." I woke up with a start and said, "Thank you, Lord. I promise to share all my blessings today."

RIFLESSIONE SULLA PAROLA DI DIOVangelo della Domenica: Luca 19, 1-10

A Gerico si trovava un posto di controllo doganale dell'amministrazione romana. Zaccheo era il capo dei controllori.

Egli aveva sulla coscienza non solo le estorsioni e le malversazioni finanziarie abituali fra i "doganieri" dell'epoca, ma era considerato anche traditore politico e religioso, perché collaborava con i detestati oppressori della Palestina e, anzi, li sosteneva. Non sappiamo quali motivazioni spingessero Zaccheo nel desiderio di vedere Gesù. Nessuno tra la folla degli Ebrei pii gli fa posto in prima fila, né gli permette di salire sul suo tetto e perciò Zaccheo deve salire su un albero. Vedendolo, Gesù, di sua iniziativa, si invita a casa sua. Non solo Zaccheo è pieno di gioia, ma Gesù stesso è felice di poter perdonare il peccatore pentito e di accoglierlo come un figlio prodigo. Gesù esprime la sua gioia con queste parole: "Oggi la salvezza è entrata in questa casa, perché anch'egli è figlio di Abramo".

Gesù esprime così il suo amore e il suo completo dedicarsi ai peccatori: sono essi che si sono allontanati, eppure è lui che è venuto a cercarli.

REFLEXIONEMOS LA PALABRA DE DIOS
Evangelio del Domingo: Lucas 19, 1-10

Soñé que estaba en el cielo y un ángel me servía de guía. Visitamos dos habitaciones inmensas: La primera donde una multitud de ángeles clasificaban las oraciones y peticiones, mientras que en la otra se empacaban y enviaban las gracias y bendiciones. Luego nos detuvimos frente a una habitación pequeña donde un ángel estaba sentado sin hacer nada. “Aquí se reciben los agradecimientos”, dijo mi guía. “¿Por qué no acontece nada aquí?, le pregunté. Mi guía me contestó con un suspiro: “Después de recibir sus bendiciones muy pocas personas acusan recibo. Mas, si tienes comida, ropa y vivienda, eres más rico que el 75 por ciento del mundo. Si tienes dinero en el banco eres parte del 8 por ciento de los ricos del mundo. Si nunca has experimentado guerra, prisión, tortura o hambre no tienes semejanza alguna con unos setecientos millones de personas en el mundo.

Si puedes expresar tus creencias sin ser perseguido eres más libre que tres billones de personas en el mundo”. Me desperté sobresaltado y dije: “Gracias, Señor. Te prometo compartir hoy todas mis bendiciones”.

ALL SAINTS PRAYER

*Almighty ever-living God, by whose gift we venerate in one celebration
the merits of all the Saints,
bestow on us, we pray,
through the prayers of so many intercessors,
an abundance of the reconciliation with you for which we earnestly long.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.*

ALL SOULS PRAYER

*Merciful Father, hear our prayer and console us.
As we renew our faith in Your Son,
whom You raised from the dead, strengthen our hope that all our departed brothers and sisters will share in His resurrection, who lives and reigns
with You and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen*
