From the Desk of Father Jonathan

I'm writing this week's column from a bus in Ireland. I'm with family and friends...and I'm loving it...but I can't wait to get back to my parish family...to be with all of you.

We have spent most of our time by the sea. Mist, fog, rain, and cold....that's an ordinary day in Ireland. But there is a warmth about the people. In many of the small towns we met people who just wanted to talk about America. They see it as a promised land...a place of dreams, a place of hope. They also know...because they have relatives who have immigrated here...that America has a way of changing us...we can forget where we came from and what we are all about. Good people can become cold and cynical. That's not necessary, but I think we can say, that it does happen.

I come home now with great gratitude for what America is. I think of the diversity that we live every day. I think of the incredible values of our foundations. But I'm also inspired to never allow the circumstances of my birthplace or my place of residence to determine who I am as a person. No circumstance can change me for the bad.

Bronx, I love you! Our Lady of Mt Carmel Parish, I love you! Because it is here where God has called me. It is with all of you, that God has placed me. And I am happy. Thank you.

God bless,
 Fr. Jonathan

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORDSunday Gospel: Luke 15, 1-10

In Jesus' time, a first-born son inherited two-thirds of his father's property; younger sons got the rest.

The younger son in today's Gospel cannot wait, demands his portion, and leaves. The money is quickly gone and he is reduced to herding pigs. He returns home, intending to confess his guilt and request to be a servant, not a son. Yet the father runs out to meet him, clothes him in finery, and orders a huge feast. The older son is hostile, although he is guaranteed his father's love and a fine inheritance. The father knows how to forgive and forget; sadly, the older son knows neither. Whatever the younger son did is nothing compared to who he is—the beloved child. This story invites us to consider whether we act like the younger son or the older son, or if we strive to act the way that God does toward us, as the forgiving father.

Living Stewardship Now

Make a list of everyone you have not completely forgiven. If you cannot make peace with them in person, pray for them once a day until you know you can forgive and forget.

RIFLESSIONE SULLA PAROLA DI DIOVangelo della Domenica: Luca 15, 1-10

Voler essere discepoli del Cristo significa avere scelto e deciso di seguirlo, significa avere scelto Cristo come unico punto di riferimento della e nella nostra vita. Lo seguiamo perché lo amiamo e perché abbiamo fondato su di lui, e solo su di lui, il nostro progetto di vita.

Vivremo, nonostante tutto, infedeltà ed errori quotidiani, ma non saranno questi a troncane la nostra sequela se sapremo accettarli e viverli come limite e quindi come parte della croce che ogni giorno ci è chiesto di portare. Una croce fatta di grandi e piccole sofferenze e miserie, ma è proprio l'adesione alla "nostra" croce la via per divenire e rimanere suoi discepoli.

La Chiesa, oggi e sempre, è costruita da chi ha il coraggio di affidarsi soltanto a Dio e seguire Gesù con totale abbandono e senza nessun compromesso.

REFLEXIONEMOS LA PALABRA DE DIOS
Evangelio del Domingo: Lucas 15, 1-10

En los tiempos de Jesús el hijo primogénito heredaba las dos terceras partes de las propiedades de su padre; los hijos menores se quedaban con la porción restante.

El hijo menor en el evangelio de hoy no puede esperar, exige su parte y se va. El dinero se acaba pronto y no le queda otra alternativa que cuidar de los cerdos. Regresa a casa con la intención de confesar su culpa y pedir que se le trate como un siervo y no como hijo. Sin embargo, el padre sale a su encuentro con la mejor ropa y ordena que se ofrezca un banquete. El hijo mayor reacciona hostilmente, aunque ya tiene garantizado el amor de su padre y una buena herencia. El padre sabe cómo perdonar y olvidar pero, tristemente, el hijo mayor desconoce ambas cosas. Lo que hizo el hijo no tiene importancia comparado con quién es el hijo: el hijo amado.

Esta historia nos invita a considerar si actuamos como el hijo menor o como el mayor, y si nos esforzamos en actuar como Dios actúa con nosotros, esto es, como un padre indulgente.

Viviendo la Palabra de Dios

Haz una lista de esas personas a las que no has perdonado del todo. Si no puedes hacer las paces con ellas en persona, ora por ellas una vez al día hasta que puedas perdonar y olvidar.
