FROM THE DESK OF FATHER JONATHAN

October 21, 2018

This is my last chance to beat the drum for everyone to make their best effort to honor our beloved religious sisters by attending this year's dinner dance next Sunday October 28th at 3:00pm. Tickets will be available after all masses this weekend. If you don't have your checkbook or cash on hand you can sign up to reserve your tickets and we will contact you for payment.

See below what I wrote in last weekend's bulletin about next weekend's festivities!!

The last weekend of October will be dedicated to give thanks to the Lord for the twenty-five years of service to our parish of the Missionary Sisters of the Catechism. You know the three religious sisters who are currently serving our parish: Sr. Edna, Sr. Jiasmin, and Sr. Martina. Some of you also know Sr. Loreto and Sr. Virginia who have served here in the past. They will all be here that weekend, together with their Mother General and four other sisters of their congregation. That means we will have ten (10) sisters in our neighborhood that week! What a blessing!

There will be three opportunities to be with the sisters and to thank them for their service. On Saturday evening, October 27th, from 5:30pm - 8:00pm, we will host a gathering in Fatima Hall. All are invited to come greet the sisters, listen to their Mother General, view a slide show of their work, and listen to music and enjoy some light food. On Sunday, we will celebrate the 12:15pm mass in gratitude to God for their twenty-five years at Mt. Carmel. And of course, that same afternoon we will have our annual parish dinner dance. The sisters are the honorees at this event and all proceeds will go to their religious order. The sisters deserve all of our love and support.

Please make plans to attend the dinner dance (get the tickets at the office as soon as possible) and in this way show the sisters how grateful we are to them for their lives and service.

God bless, Father Jonathan
